26 separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or 27 being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable 28 opportunity for private consultation with counsel.

1 If a party desires this Court to reconsider conditions of release because of 2 material and newly discovered circumstances pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), that 3 party shall file a two-page motion for reconsideration succinctly stating what 4 circumstances are new, how they are established, and the requested change in 5 conditions of release. The motion shall indicate whether opposing counsel or 6 Pretrial Services object, whether a hearing is desired, and whether a supplemental 7 pretrial report is requested. This Court will treat the motion as expedited and 8 submitted without argument, and will set a hearing or issue other orders as may be 9 appropriate.
